

Back to Index

Careers Level 4

Skills
Analytical Contextual

		Skills	Analytical	Contextual
CC.LT 4.01	Identifies and describes responsibilities of community leaders in the areas of leadership, ethics and integrity. Uses information to address personal skills in each area.
CC.LT 4.02	Models leadership skills by leading a group through team-building experiences.
CC.LT 4.03	Summarizes a business's policy regarding absences and completing scheduled activities on time. Demonstrates ability to consistently complete tasks on time.
CC.LT 4.04	Uses problem-solving solution with a business and/or community person to identify a problem at Highland Tech High and present three possible solutions.
CC.LT 4.05	Practices leadership skills during problem-solving activities using formal processes.
CC.LT 4.06	Demonstrates knowledge of basic business concepts (supply/demand, business ownerships, corporations, financial reporting).
CC.LT 4.07	Completes Internship and posts one summary in Portfolio. Presents Portfolio (in a self-initiated meeting with instructor, parent/guardian, and business/community partner) while
CC.LT 4.08	Develops plan for completing post-secondary pathways to include at least 3 of the following (vocational training, college/university, entrepreneurial endeavors, military or directly to work) exploring match of interest to needs, both of pathway and employee. Completes life-skills budget for completing post-secondary option plan. (salary, housing, transportation, taxes, fixed and variable
CC.LT 4.09	Explains leadership traits and places self on a continuum for each, with "stretch goals" for moving forward with specific actions, modeling and/or teaching others from shared vision for
CC.LT 4.10	Explores transitions between high school and next steps, including the choice of college / no college and long-term effects. Determines first 3 steps for the choice made (training required, classes needed, costs, long-term possibilities for advancement).			