

Back to Index

Social Environments Level 6

Skills
Analytical Contextual

Process
Inquisitive Thought & Creativity	SE.AN 6.01	Develops a creative solution to a current issue based on available information.
Information Processing Tools	SE.AN 6.02	Analyzes the impact and credibility of information from various media outlets.
Logic & Reasoning Systems	SE.AN 6.03	Evaluates the lasting impact of primary source documents.
Understanding Variability & Point of View	SE.AN 6.04	Analyzes opposing viewpoints to determine a course of action.
Mastering Action	SE.AN 6.05	Implements an action plan to influence those in power regarding a contemporary issue.
Content: International & Alaska History
Culture	SE.EG 6.01	Compares the disparity between American ideals and the reality of American political, economic, and social life.
Time, Continuity, & Change	SE.EG 6.02	Uses historical data and demographics to predict future political and economic trends
People, Places, & Environments	SE.EG 6.03	Compares and contrasts various views on environmental conservation, development, and resource management.
Individual Development & Identity	SE.EG 6.04	Distinguishes the characteristics of political points of view (radical, liberal, moderate, conservative, and reactionary).
Individuals, Groups, & Institutions	SE.EG 6.05	Analyzes the meaning of economic statistics (unemployment percentage, gross domestic product, inflation, consumer price index, interest rates, etc.).
Power, Authority, & Governance	SE.EG 6.06	Examines at least two issues, problems, or concepts in constitutional law (ethics/values, minority vs. majority, popular beliefs, etc.).
Production, Distribution, & Consumption	SE.EG 6.07	Examines the concept of capitalism and its impact on class, production, the distribution of wealth and resource development.
Science, Technology, & Global Connections	SE.EG 6.08	Analyzes the impact of science and technology on a democratic society.
	SE.EG 6.09	Researches and compares the foreign policy relationships between the United States and two developing countries, analyzes the economic impact of imports and exports, currencies, human rights, democratic development, and predicts future U.S. involvement with these countries.
Civic Ideas & Practices	SE.EG 6.10	Identifies the role of political parties, campaigns, the press, political action committees, and finances in government.		